ReNYlet dated 1/11/77.

The document which was enclosed with referenced appears to be a test report relating to an attack weapon A-6.

Copies of this same type material have been referred to FBIHQ on numerous occasions in the past few months by various individuals and businesses.

FBIHQ has had portions of the documents previously received examined by a representative of the Office of Defense Research and Engineering Strategic and Support Systems, Testing and Evaluation, Department of Defense (DOD), regarding their authenticity. After examination, the DOD advised as follows: "This information was probably conjured up as a hoax. In any event, from a technical standpoint, the terms are not consistent with those used in a normal test report nor are they presented in language that would have been used in a flight testing business." [redacted] b3 b7E

In view of the above, the Bureau does not have any reason for conducting further investigation regarding these documents. FEB 18 1977

NOTE:

The New York Office (NYO) furnished copies of a document which had been received in the mail by [redacted]

[redacted]
Queens, New York. This document, which appeared to be a test report, was classified "~~Secret~~." The envelope in which it was mailed showed a return address of Gene La Roque, Mountain State Engineers, Post Office Box 17960, Tucson, Arizona 85731. [redacted] had no idea why the document was mailed to his company and was concerned that it could have been misdirected, and further, because of its classified nature, notified the NYO.

As shown above, it has been determined through the DOD that this document has been conjured up as a hoax.
